SOCIETE GENERALE SECURITIES SERVICES NAMED “CUSTODIAN OF THE YEAR FOR FRANCE” FOR A SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR BY ICFA

Societe Generale Securities Services (SGSS) has been named “Custodian of the Year for France” for a second consecutive year in the ICFA* European Custody and Fund Administration Awards 2011.

This award was attributed by a jury of prominent industry representatives. It recognises SGSS’ achievements in winning over 280 client mandates worldwide in 2011 only, including some significant ones in France, and in having an increase of assets under custody for France over the last year, as well as in implementing a number of important and innovative projects for its clients.

SGSS provides local and global custody, trustee services, liability services and transfer agency services, and offers a customised direct custody solution within an innovative technological environment.

International Custody & Fund Administration is a leading magazine covering the international securities industry. It is published bi monthly.*
