

SOCIETE GENERALE SECURITIES SERVICES IN ITALY WINS A MANDATE AS DEPOSITARY BANK FROM AMBIENTA SGR

Press Release

Milan, London, 20 April 2021

Societe Generale Securities Services (SGSS) in Italy has been mandated as depositary bank by Ambianta SGR for its Private Equity funds

SGSS in Italy has been selected by Ambianta SGR, a Private Equity firm in Italy and Europe, to provide depositary bank services.

“We are pleased to have been selected by Ambianta SGR, a European asset manager leader in applying environmental sustainability trends to the financial investments world. This mandate highlights the focus of SGSS and its teams in a key and growing segment of the asset management. Supporting Italian and international entities working for a concrete application and enhancement of sustainable finance criteria in their investment strategies is one of the strategic development axes of our asset and securities services activities”, commented Roberto Pecora, CEO of Societe Generale Securities Services in Italy.

SGSS in Italy, the Italian subsidiary of Societe Generale, is a key player in the securities services industry. It provides post-trade services to institutional investors: custody and settlement, depositary and fund administration services, middle office, liquidity management, transfer agent and risk & performance management.
